VOL. 14, NUMBER 109 MONESSEN, PA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19 1915 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

The fall season is here. This country has arranged to loan $500,000,000 to Great Britain and France. Are you still croaking hard times? Maybe a little judgment and business push would help you.

High School Foot Ball
Team Wins Third Victory

Monessen High school outplayed, outfought and outgeneraled Jeannette on their own field Saturday and won by the score of 33-6. The team work of Monessen was decidedly improved over the previous week and the big crowd of rooters that accompanied the team were well pleased with their showing.

The first half was hard fought and it was only the great defensive work of the locals that enabled them to keep in the lead. On one occasion Jeannette had the ball on Monessen's four yard line and four tries to make the goal. So fierce was the attack of Monessen that they held Jeannette for downs and took the ball on the two yard line.

The game was replete with sensational plays, and the rooters of both teams gave evidence of much spirit and enthusiasm. Every man on the Monessen team starred during the game, while the team as a whole worked like a great machine. Time after time the Monessen backs left their feet in the interference, each time bringing one of their opponents to the ground.

Preston, the local fullback, who had been injured in the West Newton game, was again in the lineup and played a good game both in ground gaining and handling points. Frazier, McKinley, Williams and Johnson also starred, each contributing many long gains. Frazier made a brilliant play when he intercepted one of Jeannette's passes and ran forty yards for a touchdown. McKinley's kicking was of the highest order.

Williams, besides contributing many spectacular plays, used faultless generalship in running the team. Capt. Newhouse, the invincible, fairly burned the earth up with "pep." Boag on the defense proved to be a "stonewall," while he contributed a touchdown after receiving a forward pass.

The work of Hess and Miller, the giant tackles, was of the highest order, both on offense and defense. Saro, although not in very good condition, played a good game at guard as did Wild who took his place in the last quarter. The real sensation of the game was Eller who played his first game at guard. He was repeatedly in the limelight on defense. On one occasion he broke through and got the kicker with the ball before he got his kick off. McQuaide, the "Old Reliable" played the best game of his career. The lineup:

Monessen—33		Jeannette—6
Newhouse,Capt.	le	Sault
Hess	lt	C. Bricker
Soro-Wild	lg	Slonacker
McQuadie	c	Maxwell
Eller	rg	Trescher

Williams	rb	Soles
McKinley-Johnston	lh	Black
Frazier	rh	Johnson

Touchdowns—Frazier, 4; Boag. Goals from touchdowns, McKinley 3.

Saturday of this week they will meet one of their strongest opponents, the Donora High school on the local grounds. The Donora team have had three victories and one defeat to their credit for the season, but the local boys with a clean slate will attempt to add another victory to their list.

Abandons Tour

Gottleib H. Von Pelt, the young Austrian who was in Monessen last week on a bicycle tour around the world, and who had with him a Pittsburgh girl as his bride, discovered that while he was able to make the trip alone, he was unable to provide for his young wife and so gave up the trip. He returned to Pittsburgh Thursday and is now housekeeping at the home of his bride who was Miss Lauretta E. Mutdosch.

Shortly after leaving Pittsburgh, Von Pelt found himself in Latrobe without funds. He said that while in that state it caused him to think that the company who was to pay him a certain amount for his trip might break up on account of the war and rather than have his 17 year old bride suffer the pangs of hunger, he returned to Pittsburgh where he expects to secure employment.

A Good Sport?

Benny Brown of Greensburg, is a good sport evidently. Benny was very much opposed to the nomination of W. Dick Reamer for county commissioner, and so sanguine was he that Dick would not be renominated that he proffered the bet of a $30.00 suit of clothes with Squire Shuster who favored Mr. Reamer's nomination. It came out that Benny lost and Mr. Shuster went to Frantz and Boyd's, bought hte suit and had the bill sent to Benny. This morning the bill was referred back to Mr. Shuster by the clothing firm with the following notation:

Frantz & Boyd.
Monessen, Pa.
Gentlemen:—

This bill received and in reply will say that this bill does not belong to me, and if Mr. Shuster has purchased from you a suit of clothes, he will certainly have to pay for it, as I never gave him any authority to use my name in any tailor's establishment. There was a bet for a $30.00 suit of clothes, but it did not say whether it was to be new or old, and I have a suit of clothes I intend to ship him which cost $35.00. You had better collect your bill from Shuster as I will never pay.

Yours very truly,
Benny Brown.

Imagine Squire Shuster moving about the streets wearing an old suit of any man's, much less that of a cheap sport.

Four Prisoners

Four drunks were before the Burgess this morning and they received fines of $1.00 and costs each. If a man gets deliberately and maliciously drunk, it costs him $3.00 in addition to what he has spent for drink. Henry Ludwick, James Shank, John Kadding and William McGinley were the prisoners today.

All Welcome

Erasmus Wilson, the "Quiet Observer" for the Pittsburgh Gazette Times, will be the speaker before the Board of Trade Friday night. All should hear this famous literary star. It won't cost a cent as the expenses are being borne by the organization and no collection will be taken up.

The meeting will be held in the High School auditorium and the public, including men and women, boys and girls is invited. Mr. Wilson will talk on a civic topic. He will address the meeting immediately after the business meeting.

On this evening the High school building will be thrown open for public inspection and all citizens of the town are invited to attend and be escorted through the building. The doors will be thrown open at 7 o'clock and one hour will be given over to viewing the building, and at 8 o'clock promptly the board of trade will go into session. Everybody is invited to remain. It is expected that members of the board will bring their families and help swell the crowd and hear the good lecture.

Attracting Crowds

Rev. Dr. Max Wertheimer, the converted Jewish rabbi, excelled himself last night at the Baptist church in the very able and excellent discourse he gave on "The Fundamental Psalm" which he took to be the First Psalm. This exegesis of this portion of scripture was interesting. There was shown forth the positive and negative sides of the Christian man's life and prosperity and happiness promised all those who lived the consecrated life. The Doctor was scathing in his denunciation of worldly church members today whose lives were a hindrance and disgrace to the cause of God. They profess to love Christ, but by their association with ungodly amusements, dancing, card parties, theatre going, proved they were never born again. "By their fruits ye shall know them." The spiritual application of the Psalm was beautiful and the unanimous feeling was that the meeting was one of the best held yet. Tonight the subject will be "The Perplexing Psalm." A hearty invitation is extended to everybody to come and hear this wonderful Biblical expositor.

Suffrage Advocate Will Lecture Here Thursday

Big, breezy and filled to overflowing with brillian Irish wit that has endeared him to all who have heard his lectures or sermons or who have read his books is Alexander Irvine, who will be the speaker at the great suffrage mass meeting at Fourth and Donner at 8 o'clock on Oct. 21st.

Alexander Irvine

Alexander Irvine was the man who went out to the poor and downtrodden of the city and gathered them up in thousands to the services. He preached to them as one who knew them, for his own life story has been well named "From the Bottom Up."

In his work at the Church of the Ascension, Mr. Irvine made a great name for himself. He fought for his poor followers with the same courage that had gained him medals from Queen Victoria and from the Khedive of Egypt when he was in the British army.

Of late years he has devoted himself to writing and lecturing. His books have gained high praise. The London "Standard" said of "My Lady of the Chimney Corner," in which he told the story of his mother's life: "It is one of the simplest yet one of the loftiest tributes ever paid by a son to his mother. It is a thing of infinite tenderness and beauty."

Harkins Thanks Voters

Dr. James Harkins, of Mount Pleassant, Republican nominee for the office of coroner of Westmoreland county, was in town for a short time yesterday. Dr. Harkins was well pleased with the large vote he received here and not being able to see all the voters on this trip, he takes this means of expressing his thanks for the loyal support given him at the primaries. He stated that he would return to Monessen for the big Republican reception Thursday, Oct. 28.

Should Have Civic Pride

Civic pride, if nothing else, should inspire a man to trade at home. Because some merchant's wife trades out of town is no excuse for some one else doing the same thing. If a man thinks he is saving a few cents on some article, he feels he is justified in giving his business to a mail order house, but he isn't. No man who cares to build up his home town and further its institutions will give his patronage to foreign houses. Mark a dollar and send it to Chicago and see how long it will be before that dollar gets back to Monessen. Mark another dollar and turn it loose in town and see how many times it will change hands and how may times it will go over a local bank counter before it gets away from the community.

No person denies the constitutional and legal right to another person to trade where he pleases. We argue that to trade out of Monessen injures Monessen and helps the community that receives the patronage. Our correspondent on another page of this paper says "mail order houses have built up a good business by selling good merchandise cheaper than the local merchants." He of course, is not specific in his remarks. He classifies all merchants and all merchandise under one head. He sends his check to Chicago, pays the freight or expense and drayage on the goods and runs all risk. He probably has never taken an equal amount of cash to our local merchants and offered the same inducements to the local men as the Chicago man demands. Does he know how much more capital it takes to do a credit business than it does to carry on a cash business? Does he know that Monessen is a credit town and that many people send their cash out of town and tell the local merchant to "charge it." Does he realize the added profit it takes to do business under this system compared to his cash Chicago mail order house?

How much did his Sears-Roebuck firm contribute to the band stand in the park? How much to the boy scouts? How much do they pay to keep our public schools alive? How much to the milk and ice fund? How much to the Volunteer Firemen? How much to the churches? How many miles of streets have they helped to pave? How much do they contribute to the Board of Trade? How much to public charity?

Civic pride, if nothing else, should inspire a man to trade in Monessen. The man who trades in Chicago is selfish. He cares nothing for his home town or the welfare of its institutions and its people. He doesn't care whether the schools of Monessen are equipped with the best teachers or if the churces have eloquent orators, trained choirs and pipe organs. All he looks to is how he can save on a pound of coffee or a quart of beans. Give us the man who is a patriot and who would not only fight for his country but who would make Monessen a better place in which to live.

Young Men are Active

Hats off to the young men of Monessen for the interest they are taking in their patriotic duty, that of furthering the interests of the Republican party. No town in Westmoreland county should give the Republican ticket a greater boost this fall than Monessen. Strongly Republican on account of the protective policies under which it was founded and upon which its future depends, its voters should rally to the standard on November 2nd and support the straigth ticket. We participated in the primaries and we should be honorable enough to stand by the ticket the majority nominated.

The young men of Monessen are hopeful of building up a strong organization to further the entire ticket and they are soliciting the support of all who will help further the cause. This fall we have an impelling motive in supporting Republican principles since we are on the eve of a national campaign when so much depends on the restoration of Republican principles, a policy of protection under which Monessen was founded and which made the McKinley administration so eventful in the industrial history of this country.

Men if you believe in the policies of Lincoln, Grant, Garfield and McKinley, get under the banner now. Vote the straight ticket this fall as well as next fall and help keep the wheels of Monessen's industries humming and help every man to keep his job. Help the young men to make a good showing for the town Nov. 2nd.

For those who seek relief from kidney backache, weak kidneys, bladder ills, Doan's Kidney Pills offer hope of relief and the proof is here in Monessen the same as everywhere. Monessen people recommend Doan's, the kidney remedy used in America for fifty years. Why suffer? Why run the risk of dangerous kidney ills—fatal Bright's disease. Here's Monessen proof. Investigate it.

Mrs. J. Feightner, 133 Oneida street, Monessen, says: "I suffered from severe pains in my left side and across my back. I often had headaches and dizzy spells and my appetite was poor. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Hirsch Drug Co., although I had but little faith in them. I am glad that I did, for they did me a world of good. I highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from kidney disorders."

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. OUR PUBLIC FORUM

Cardinal Gibbons

On Woman's Suffrage.

Equal rights do not imply that both sexes should engage promiscuously in the same pursuits, but rather that each sex should discharge those duties which are adapted to its physical constitution and are sanctioned by the canons of society. To some among the gentler sex the words equal rights have been, it is feared, synonymous with "similar rights." To debar woman from certain pursuits is not to degrade her. To restrict her field of action to the gentler avocations of life is not to fetter her aspirations after the higher and the better. It is, on the contrary, to secure her no equal rights so-called, but those supereminent rights which cannot fail to endow her with a sacred influence in her own proper sphere.

The insistence on a right of participation in active political life is undoubtedly calculated to rob women of all that is amiable and gentle, tender and attractive; to rob her of her innate grace of character, and give her nothing in return but masculine boldness and effrontery. Its advocates are habitually preaching about woman's rights and prerogatives, and have not a word to say about her duties and responsibilities. They withdraw her from those obligations which properly belong to her sex and fill her with ambition to usurp positions for which neither God nor nature ever intended her. Under the influence of such teachers we find woman, especially in higher circles, neglecting her household duties, never at peace unless she is in perpetual motion, or unless she is in a state of morbid excitement. She never feels at home unless she is abroad. When she is home the home is irksome to her. Hence arise disputes, quarrels, recriminations, estrangements or the last act of the drama is often the divorce.

When I deprecate female suffrage, I am pleading for the dignity of woman, I am contending for her honor, I am striving to perpetuate those peerless prerogatives inherent in her sex, those charms and graces which exalt womankind and make her the ornament and the coveted companion of man.

Woman is queen, indeed, but her empire is the domestic kingdom. The greatest political triumphs she would achieve in public life fade into insignificance compared with the serene glory which radiates from the domestic shrine, and which she illumines and warms by her conjugal and motherly virtues. If she is ambitious of the dual empire of public and private life, then, like the fabled dog beholding his image in the water, she will lose both, she will fall from the lofty pedestal where nature and Christianity have placed her, and will fail to grasp the scepter of political authority from the strong hand of her male competitor.

Though woman is debarred from voting she brings into the world and rocks the cradle of the nation's future citizens. She rears and molds the character of those who are to be the future rulers and statesmen; the heroes and benefactors of the country. Surely this is glory enough for her.

OUR PUBLIC FORUM

Peter Radford

On Preserving Live Stock Industry.

The producer is not properly balancing the rations of this country. There are shelves in the nation's cupboard that are bare and others filled with products that are molding. As farmers we must study the pantry of the community, the nation and the world as well as its fields and pastures, for distribution is as important a part of farming as production. Much of the trouble can be overcome by the producer and part of it by the consumer. For example, the producer can raise more cattle but he cannot increase the proportion of sirloin steak in each beef; the farmer may with economy raise more sheep but he cannot force the consumer to eat mutton instead of veal; the farmers on the coast can raise considerably more rice, but they cannot make the consumer eat it.

Taking the world as one big farm and comparing our average annual harvest with that of a decade ago, we find an increase in the world's supply of cereals of approximately 13 per cent against an increase in the world's population of less than 3 per cent, but the condition of our live stock industry is alarming. In the United States we show, according to the federal census reports, an increase in population of 21 per cent during the past decade and a decrease in meat-food animals of about 12 per cent, and against this condition our consumption of meat per capita has, during the decade, remained practically stationary.

This disappearance of live stock from the farms will also result in depleting the soil; have a tendency to shift to a one-crop basis, and from every angle prove a serious disaster to agriculture. Commissioner of Agriculture Houston has very properly sounded a warning to the American plowmen and has pledged his department to use every effort in encouraging the farmers to raise more live stock.

It is going to require the co-operation of the farmers, the consumers, the breeders and feeders, the government, the packers, the retailers and all agencies to lift the live stock industry to its proper level.

While all agencies mentioned seek gain, there is no reason why we cannot all profit by understanding, for in business, knowledge always brings dividends. The consumer can economize by eating all the beef instead of a part of it; the farmer can profit by improving grade and methods of feeding. We look to the packers for a market! The government can, by proper co-operation, render more efficient service in stamping out disease; and the slaughter of calves and young stock is probably more disastrous to the cattle industry than any pestilence.

There is no more important or difficult subject before the American people for solution today than the preservation of the live stock industry, and I am going to invite all agencies of that industry to join in an earnest discussion and constructive effort to bring about this desirable result.

KNOW THY COUNTRY

Our Packing Industry

America is the birthplace of industry and the power-house of progress, but no enterprise in the history of business has so completely mastered the world's trade as that of our Packing Houses. There are little Packing House products of foreign countries sold in the United States but the sun never sets upon the plants of the American packers. Their founders were men of superior business sagacity, powerful vision, enduring purposes, and their plants stand as monuments to the business genius of the age. The Packing Houses have done more by their rigid inspection and modern methods of sanitation toward improving and preserving the health of the nation than any other single agency.

No business institution in America has so forcefully demonstrated the advantages of large combinations of capital as that of the Packing Houses and none has contributed more to increasing the wealth of the nation and prosperity of agriculture. The soundness of an industry and the integrity of its methods are measured by its patronage and usefulness to civilization. They have organized the market, created a demand for quantity and quality in meat products and by improved storage facilities and efficient methods of distribution they have rendered a distinct service to both producer and consumer, and have eliminated more economic waste than any other line of business industry.

Meat is the nation's principal diet. We eat more meat and better meat than any other nation on the globe, consuming almost double the quantity of meat per capita that Europe does, and scientists attribute our abundant virility and unconquerable energy to meat eating.

The slaughtering and meat packing industry of the United States ranks first in the value of annual output, the yearly production being $1,370,568,000.

There are 1,641 plants located in 43 states of the nation, representing a capital investment of $383,250,000. The industry employs 169,000 persons, whose yearly pay roll aggregates more than $72,000,000. This industry during the past ten years has doubled its annual pay roll, output and capital investment. Illinois leads all states in this industry and Chicago is the greatest packing center and livestock market in the world.

On January 1, 1915, our available meat supply consisted of 151,641,000 head of cattle, sheep and hogs. Compared with the estimates of ten years previous, this is a decrease of about 17,000,000 head in the total supply.

A comparison of the farm value of our meat producing animals now and ten years ago is also interesting, as the aggregate value has nearly doubled. The value per head has increased almost one hundred per cent. Nearly 57,000,000 head of meat animals are slaughtered in our packing houses annually.

The average consumption of meat per capita in the United States is one-half pound per day.

AUCTION

WEEK'S PROGRAM AT OLYMPIC THEATRE, MONDAY TO SATURDAY, OCT, 18 TO 24.

REGULAR PROGRAM

WEDNESDAY —The wonderful feature "The Woman Who Lied" in four parts, featuring Mary Fuller. "The Disappearing Helmets," one of "The Romance of Elaine' episodes with Pearl White, Lionel Barrymore and the Mysterious Mr. X. (Notice, Wednesday, Oct. 27 will be the last episode of "The Romance of Elaine" and her Triumph and the disclosure of the Mysterious Mr. X. This will also be the first episode of "The Neal of the Navy" one of the most wonderful serials ever on the market. You know what Pathe series are, "The Exploits of Elaine," "New Exploits of Elaine" and "Romance of Elaine." Now I know and guarantee that "Neal of the Navy" will surpass every one in every way. Watch it.) Also one of Charley Chaplin comedies for Wednesday.

THURSDAY—The $50,000 Jewel Theft," in two reels, featuring Murdock McQuarrie and Edna Payne. My opinion is that MacQuarrie is one of the most wonderful dramatists ever in the moving picture world. There are few equal to him. "An Innocent Villian," a Joker comedy with Max Asher and Gale Henry, and the Broadway Universal feature "Under Southern Skies" in five reels, featuring Mary Fuller. This feature has set all exhibitors wild who were fortunate enought to get it in their program.

FRIDAY—Two of the finest comedies—"Eddie's Little Love Affair," a Nestor comedy with E. Lyons and one of L KO's comedies "A Mortgage on His Daughter" with Hank Mann and Peggy Pearce. Also one of Metro's features, the kind that crowds our doors all evening. B. A. Rolfe offers the two distinguished stars Jane Grey and Lionel Barrymore (the same star who is featured in "The Romance of Elaine") in "The Flaming Sword," in five acts and 210 scenes.

SATURDAY—"Queen of Jungle Land," in three reels of the kind that makes our audiences applaud wildly, featuring Edythe Sterling and Wellington Playter. Animated weekly. Pathe comedy with Heinie and Louie and the dearest and most friendly picture in our theatre. The 22nd episode of "The Diamond From the Sky" in two reels.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

WEDNESDAY—Mary Fuller in "The Woman Who Lied." Direction of Lucius Henderson. Lovers of Mary Fuller and they number millions, will see that many-sided and most charming actress in an entirely new character as Mary Martel, in the strong play, "The Woman Who Lied." As an actress with more self indulgence than character, Miss Fuller gives a portrayal that will astound those who hitherto have seen her only in "sweet" parts. Her strength in the big emotional scenes with which the play abounds, mark her work as far above the ordinary. To shield a lover Miss Fuller is guilty of the conviction of an innocent man, and her work in this and in the climax marks a wonderful advance in her more serious work. This is a play that will delight all who care for a meaty plot with strong emotional acting and it will go big any and everywhere.

THURSDAY—The Universal presents the beloved idol of the screen, Mary Fuller in that beautiful drama of love and romance in the ante-bellum days of the south, "Under Southern Skies," filmed in five wonderful acts. A brillian photo play, acted by a brilliant company in and around Savannah, Georgia. Replete with the charming atmosphere of the sunny South in the period of 1860. A play for everybody, sweet, wholesome, refreshing.

FRIDAY—Metro Pictures corporation presents the two distinguished stars, Jane Grey and Lionel Barrymore in "The Flaming Sword." The story: Steve, a young college chap who has been unfortunate in his busines career, after a life of dissipation, concludes that life is not worth the living and contemplates suicide. Among his associates is a girl named Maisie with whom Steve's name has been coupled by his intimates. Steve gives a banquet and announces that he is a bankrupt and that his friends are looking upon him for the last time. After the affair Steve goes to his apartments, puts his affairs in order and slowly walks to the water front where he hires a small boat, and the last seen of him is his boat, sail set, leaving the inlet for the open sea. Maisie, realizing that Steve has intentions of injuring himself, attempts to follow, but is too late. Steve drifts out to sea and after days of misery is washed up on the beach of a small island where he is found by a girl named Meera who lives there with her father and several servants. Then the real picture starts at the acquaintance with Meera's father.

SATURDAY—"The Queen of Jungle Land" with Edythe Sterling, Wellington Playter and Rex de Rosselli. The work of the animals at Universal City Zoo, under capable direction, is proving that an animal picture can be something more than a faked jungle scene, caged animals and a plot in which the animals play both unwilling and unnecessary parts. To see Edythe Sterling stroking the head of a full grown leopard or making a pet of the biggest lion in the zoo, is a thrilling sight—one rarely found in the usual so-called pictures. Miss Sterling's work with animals is a new experience to her, but her fearlessness as shown in this strong picture leads to the belief that she has found a new outlet for her capable activities. This picture should go big with any audience because there is a plot with a punch, a good climax and the animal feature is a necessary part of the whole.

Dissension In Monongahela Church

Monongahela, Pa., Oct. 19—Breaking padlocks to get into a church to hold religious services constitutes sufficient reason for legal action, according to the view of one faction in a squabble at the negro Second Baptist church. The church is rent with dissentions.

Trouble originated when the Rev. L. C. Garland was deposed as pastor. What Mr. Garland termed his board of deacons was the ruling body of the church until he left for West Virginia. Then one faction appointed a pulpit board, which selected the Rev. William Moore of Pittsburgh. The old board of deacons chose the Rev. Mr. Taulton of Donora. Last Saturday night the faction headed by the new pulpit board padlocked the church doors and windows and announced services for Sunday at the usual hour.

Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock the padlocks of the doors were broken, it is said and Mr. Talton started his services. His faction held the pulpit until Mr. Moore and his followers appeared. Then the first worshippers walked out.

Now the pulpit board faction is preparing to bring action in trespass, although efforts are being made to patch up the differences.

A WOMAN DOCTOR

says: "Eugenics is a necessary factor in the future of the race. The average American girl is unfit for motherhood." This may be true, but if weak and ailing girls passing from girlhood to womanhood would only rely, as thousands do, upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—that simple remedy made from roots and herbs—to restore the system to a normal healthy condition, it would cause many ills from which they suffer to disappear, so that motherhood might become the joy of their lives.

good things whenever you give it to them.

Unfortunately, they don't do it here often in our town.

Today we have three stars, Hobart Henley, Violet Mersereau and Wm. Garwood. Why not grasp such opportunities. We are doing it all for you. Last Thursday, Oct. 14, we had one of the most wonderful actors of the world in one of the best pictures in the world, Nat C. Goodwin in "Business is Business." yet we had not one fifth of the people we should. Whose fault is it? Of course, yours. I am advertising, hammering, kicking, keeping on telling you daily that whenever you hear the name of Universal production, you needn't worry over anything, get ready and go to the Olympic, you will be pleased more than if you had paid $5.00 admission for some big boosting bluff shows. Universal company is the strongest company on earth, if there is anything good on the market. Universal Film Mfg. Co. has it. It has the famous actors and actresses of speaking and silent stage of the world. It has all the facilities in locations and sceneries. For only one set of scenery in the picture "Business is Business." of only 200 feet of film, paid $5,000. Think of it. In every other town or city all you had to say was Nat C. Goodwin, Hobart Bosworth, Mary Fuller, Cleo Madison, Albert Chevalier, Francis Bushman and their theatres are crowded to the doors. What is the matter with Monessen. Are we behind every other village or city of America. I hope not and I do not want to believe it, with hope that we will do better. I remind you again today, Tuesday—Hobart Henley in "The Silent Battle," Violet Mersereau with Wm. Garwood in "The Unnecessary Sex."

Tomorrow—Mary Fuller, the famous star in "The Woman Who Lied" a four reel feature, a wonderful Universal feature.

Thursday—Mary Fuller again in "Under Southern Skies," Broadway Universal feature, 5 reels, cannot be equalled.

Friday—Two of the famous stars, Jane Grey and Lionel Barrymore in "The Flaming Sword," Metro feature in five reels.

Saturday—Edyth Sterling and Wellington Playter and Rex de Rosselli, Universal stars in "The Queen of Jungle Land" in three reels.—Olympic theatre.

1915 NOVEMBER ELECTION PRESIDENTIAL YEAR 1916

The November election will cast its shadow before for the Republican Party in the State of Pennsylvania.

The result of the primaries in the State foreshadows a great Republican victory, a clean sweep for the whole Republican ticket and a service of notice upon the country that Pennsylvania is once more occupying her logical place at the head of the Republican states of the Union and is the Gibraltar of Republicanism. The Keystone State will this fall renew her allegiance to the Republican party and blaze the way for a Republican victory at the national election next year. The primary vote in the Commonwealth served to accentuate popular disapproval of the Democratic economic policies and to emphasize loyalty to the principle of protection to American industries.

Westmoreland county will fall into line, there is no doubt about that. This county, above all others, needs the protection of the Republican Party. We need it in our mines, coke plants, factories and among our farmers. It then, behooves every voter to cast a straight ballot for the entire Republican ticket on Tuesday, November 2nd, and keep Westmoreland County

Editor Daily Independent:—

Regarding your recent editorial on the 38 sacks of merchandise received from out of town houses consigned to Monessen citizens, will say that those houses have built up a huge business by selling good merchandise cheaper than the local merchants can or will. If goods are not as represented back they go and no questions are asked. Those much abused houses have prepared a catalogue at great expense. I sugest this plan. You prepare a list of Monessen business houses who will furnish as good goods as these out of town houses at the same price. We will use these Chicago catalogues and save Monessen merchants all this printing expense. (Hard on you printers, is it not, but I know your public spirit won't mind that.) Then Monessen people will be saved the expense for freight and all this money will be spent in Monessen.

Remember, dear Editor, once in a while, sometimes twice, we see wives of prominent merchants in the shopping districts of a nearby city. Is it anyone's right to sell dear and buy cheap? We do not blame the merchant for getting all he can for his goods and it strikes us as simply childish to whine about our people buying where they can get the most for their money.

The merchants know we are in a measure side tracked, and it is trouble and expense for us to go elsewhere for our stuff.so they charge about as much as they think the traffic will bear. Hundreds of us know what our money will buy in Chicago and we shall continue to buy where we can do the best.

The merchants try to get the dear people's money and the dear people have the right to the most the money can buy. Don't forget the list of Monessen merchants who will furnish goods on the same terms as Chicago.

A Reader.

FRANK L. KELLY'S PLATFORM

As I am a candidate for the office of Supervisor on Rostraver township, I desire to make the following statement. I am in favor of a four mill tax. I am in favor of making all roads leading from Monessen and Webster in the best of shape. I am in favor of building permanent road by the aid of the county and state. It will be my aim if elected, to make a statement in the papers in regard to the amount of money spent during the year for the benefit of the taxpayers of the township.

Upon these principals I ask your vote and support.
